Clear Mountain Lodge is located on a mountaintop among 20 hectares of native bushland and gardens, 40 minutes from Brisbane. The Lodge has sweeping views of the granite spires of the Glasshouse Mountains, the distant towers of Brisbane city and Moreton Bay and its islands.

The Lodge is committed to serving fresh produce and sustainable tourism practices. It grows its own herbs and vegetables from its own Chef's Garden and features fruits and vegetables from local growers, cheese from producers in the Glass House Mountains, yabbies caught in Lake Samsonvale and beef from Kilcoy.

If you plan to extend your stay, local attractions include the Lyell Deer Farm, Samford District Historical Museum, Alma Oaek Zoo and Glengariff (Historic) Estate Winery & Vineyard Glengariff Estate. Brisbane is a vibrant city offering a wide variety of attractions. Visit the hotel website or the Brisbane Tourism Website <http://www.visitbrisbane.com.au/>
